Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- The Operational Analysis Branch (OAB) Identity Intelligence Analyst will research, resolve, and provide intelligence support to the targeting of known or suspected terrorist (KST) identities within a fast-paced team environment using NCTC's unique access to foreign and domestic data. The Analyst coordinates with NCTC and community partners to aggregate identity-centric data on terrorist identities that are part of high profile threat streams as well as those that require action based on operational considerations. The Analyst then develops robust profiles on those terrorist identities within the Terrorist Identities Datamart Environment (TIDE), the USG's authoritative database on KSTs, to ensure the United States can effectively identify them.
- Perform in-depth, all-source research and analysis for specifically defined KST identities; prioritize and resolve identities to support targeting through the integration of biographic, biometric, contextual and behavioral information; reveal and aggregate identity attributes for future analytic, screening, and watchlisting purposes; use both traditional and non-traditional information sources. Present findings as appropriate via written products, graphic presentations or oral briefings.
- Respond to breaking events, crises, and requests for information on imminent threats by incorporating policies, strategies, tactics, techniques, procedures and mechanisms to reveal the true identity of individuals, develop comprehensive summaries of subjects' USG footprints, and evaluate for intelligence gaps.
- Communicate regularly with internal and external peers and counterparts to collaborate on intelligence issues and conduct initial assessments of the types of information and circumstances that may create opportunities to pursue joint-targeting activities.
- Plan and prepare written presentations and oral briefings for internal and external customers on issues pertaining to and/or affecting terrorist identities intelligence and watchlisting and screening.
